Perfect for Canada Day celebrations, this yummy ice cream requires no ice-cream maker.

8 servings

Easy

up to 10 Min.

Ingredients:

No-Churn Banana Raspberry Ripple Ice Cream:

- 2 cup Whipping Cream 35% sweetened condensed milk
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- salt
- 1 package Shirriff Banana Pudding & Pie Filling Mix
- 1 cup raspberries
- 0.25 cup raspberry jam
- 2 tbsp lemon juice

- 1 Using electric mixer, whip cream until soft peaks form; beat in condensed milk, vanilla and salt until blended. Sprinkle Shirriff Banana Pudding & Pie Filling Mix over top; beat until combined. Pour into 9- x 5-inch (23 x 13 cm) loaf pan. Cover and freeze for 30 minutes.
- 2 Meanwhile, stir together raspberries, jam and lemon juice; let stand for 10 minutes. Fold into ice cream mixture just until swirled together; do not overmix. Freeze for 2 to 4 hours or until completely frozen.
- 3 Before serving, let stand at room temperature for 5 to 10 minutes; scoop into serving dishes.

Cook's Tip:

Enjoy Canada Day banana splits – topped with whipped cream, toasted almonds, banana, raspberries and shaved white chocolate.
